

Crab, You're It!

Crab, You're It!

Crab, You're It!

Crab, You're It!

Crab, You're It!

Crab, You're It!

What to do if you've been "crabbed" and "you're it":

1. Keep your eyes peeled for a friend whose workspace is empty but their desk/office light is on.
2. Place your crab on that coworker's desk as a helpful reminder to turn off the light in future.
3. If you can't find anyone to "crab," return the crab to the Crab Shack.

4. Next time, don't be "crabby" about energy efficiency, turn off your light.
